YOU CAN Make a Difference In The Lives Of The Frail Elderly In Westchester County

New York State Long Term Care Ombudsman Program at MHA of Westchester is seeking Volunteers.

The Long Term Care Ombudsman Program, which serves residents in licensed long term care facilities in Westchester County, is recruiting volunteers who are interested in training to become Ombudsmen. An Ombudsman helps to resolve complaints, monitors quality of life and helps to preserve the dignity of residents in long term care facilities.

A volunteer must be at least 21 years of age and complete a mandatory certification training program to become a New York State Certified ombudsman. A commitment of 4 hours weekly for one year is required after the training.

LTCOP staff and a faculty of experts cover a wide range of subjects, such as the aging process, regulations, levels of care, and how-to skills of working and negotiating with staff for the protection of residents' rights as prescribed by law. The training is free.

Please call for an application to be eligible for the SPRING training starting on Thursday, May 1, 2014

Prospective volunteers should call:
Margaret Hadad at (914) 265-7522
e-mail: HadadM@MHAWestchester.org
